PRINCE ALBERT, AUG. 4, 1893.

A GOOD WORD FOR PRINCE ALBERT.

Mr. J. W. Horne, M.P.P., of Vancouver, B.C., who visited this place in May last, upon his return to British Columbia was interviewed by a reporter of the Mission City News, B.C., who in speaking of Mr. Horne says:—Mr. Horne is one of the best known men in the Province, and one of the most prominent men of the prosperous young city of Vancouver, which is doubtless destined to be the second if not the first largest city in the Dominion of Canada. He is considered by large numbers of people in Vancouver and elsewhere to be a competent authority on land valuation and other business pursuits. He is a man of keen mind and good judgment, and the Times is pleased to publish a complete interview with him of his trip to the east. These are days of darkness in the business world, and particularly in the State, and the views expressed by Mr. Horne regarding the prospects in Canada, must be encouraging to our people.

This is what Mr. Horne says of Prince Albert and the surrounding district:—

The day after I arrived, J. F. A. Stull, one of the Councilmen, drove me in his car into the country in different directions. I believe I saw the finest farms in that country of any place in Canada, with the possible exception of Ontario. The character of the surface of the land is undulating prairie, with clusters of trees of different kinds here and there, and with some rocks and streams scattered about.

With man and beast with plenty of water. I was delighted with the country which was great beyond my expectations. The farmers there generally use seed drills for sowing grain, which is a great improvement over any other method. The prospect for a magnificent crop of grain was never better. The town has grown considerably since my last visit.

Hills, churches, school houses and other public buildings have been erected there recently, which demonstrated that the people had some push and energy in them. I was agreeably surprised to find that the Council of Prince Albert was composed of enterprising men. They had passed an ordinance some time since, in which they obliged the town to aid home industries. No one is denying the fact that they had the first mill in the town at present, they donated the handsome sum of $3,000 for the second. They do this in order to retain the grain market at home, and to supply their own people with labor. Prince Albert is now the centre of an immense agricultural country. It is located 300 miles north of Regina, on the south bank of the north Saskatchewan river, and is the most northerly town in the Dominion. It is already the headquarters of the Mounted Police, Hudson Bay Company, banks, colleges, churches and other important institutions, and it may be said to be the capital of a new province. This river is navigable and connects between this town and the coast. There is plenty of coal, though undeveloped, there. It is a great country for root crops as well as wheat. The train service is not what it ought to be. The people look forward, for relief, to the completion of the Manitoba and Northwestern Railway, which is now in the hands of a Receiver, with the probability of it being owned in the near future by the Canadian Pacific Railway company. If the C.P.R. get control of it and complete it and operate a daily service, Prince Albert will doubtless experience a boom. I had a pleasant time during my visit in this promising country.

The Regina Standard takes occasion very frequently to lecture the public and the people of this district especially on the evils of socialism. The Standard is the only N.W. newspaper that has ever discovered any error in the people of Prince Albert and of this district.

seems kind of strange that its local contemporary, the Leader, a paper which will compare favorably with the best of its kind both in regard to its appearance and the quality and quantity of what it contains has never found out or made accusations in this connection. That it has not done so and that the Standard has is probably accounted for by the fact that the people here have never resorted to such mean practices to induce settlement. That there have been rare instances of misrepresentation of over zealous persons we admit, but Prince Albert has most certainly been the greatest sufferer in this respect and while the Times would strongly deprecate the using of any such means, it at the same time believes that the instances which have occurred are not worthy of the notices taken of them, on the information claimed to have been given by "a gentleman from the East."

The Standard last week became terribly indignant, excited and incoherent over the alleged misdoings of H. J. Montgomery, of Prince Albert, whilst fulfilling an engagement to Senator Parley at the World's Fair, and charging Mr. Montgomery with depriving other parts of the country and giving undue praise to this district. Under the circumstance this serious charge should have been withheld from publication until either Senator Parley or some one else in authority had been consulted as to its correctness, and the consequence is that the Standard has given circulation to what Mr. Montgomery terms a "lie" and lying slander. He challenges anyone to bring the slightest proof of such conduct on his part and gives an unqualified denial to the whole story. We have every reason to believe that what he says is the truth and that the Standard has done him an injustice in attributing such actions to him. Mr. Montgomery's letter to that paper, which is found in another column, will furnish food for reflection for the Standard, and no doubt more will be heard of the matter ere long.

URGENT DOLLARS A WEEK FOR LIFE

There is a Snap for Reading People—The Last Thing Out.

In order to introduce the Canadian Agriculturalist into New Homes, the publishers have decided to present an equally attractive reward for their Great Eighth Yearly Literary Attraction for the summer of 1893. They have entered into a written agreement to pay through the Judges all the rewards offered below.

How to secure reward. Those who become subscribers can complete free of charge. All that is necessary is to take a few sheets of paper and make the words you can out of the letters in the three words, "World's Columbian Exposition," and send them to us, enclosing $1 for six months' subscription to the Canadian Agriculturalist or to the Ladies Home Magazine, two of the choicest illustrated periodicals of the day.

The sender of the right list will receive $3 per week for 100-200, $100 for gold $50, $500 for 400, $2,000 for 1,000, $100,000 for 10,000. Fare and ten days expenses, passage, cigars, liquors and general necessities, silver to service, diamonds, rings, and over 10,000 other rewards, totaling altogether the most valuable prizes ever offered by any publisher. Send for printed list of former prize winners.

Rule—1. Foreign or obsolete words not counted. 2. Letters cannot be used unless they appear in the word. "World's Columbian Exposition" that is the word "Exposition" for instance could not be used, because there is but one "d" in the three words, etc. 3. Names of places and persons barred. 4. No charge for packing or shipping, but all prize winners will be expected to help us to extend our circulation. 5. All lists containing over 100 correct words will receive a special award.

Judges. The following well known gentlemen have consented to act as judges and will see that the prizes are fairly awarded—Commodore Calhoun, (Proprietor Calcutt line of Steamers), Peterborough, and Mr. W. Robertson, President Times Printing Company, Peterborough.

Agents Wanted.—We pay $10 to $25 per day salary (no commission) to men, women boys and girls. Write for particulars. Register all money letters. Address, Agriculturalist Publishing Co., (Ltd), Peterborough, Canada.

A. S. STEWART

In the interests of those parties who would like to visit the Chicago Worlds Fair but are unable to do so on account of the rush of business and the many exigencies attending the harvesting of our large crop we have been successful in getting the principal duplicate part of the grand agricultural exhibit brought to Prince Albert. To demonstrate this fact we have on view and in working order in our spacious show rooms,

The McCormick Binder,

A Machine of Steel!

Which beats the world's record in the field and which we unhesitatingly recommend to be the lightest draft of all the many self-binding harvesters.

Its durability and capacity have never been questioned. It is the King of machines and proudly floats the banner, "The Best in the World."

THE MCCORMICK NO. 4

STEEL MOWER.

This machine is also on view and is the wonder of the age and needs no comment. Suffice it to say it ranks on its own merits, and in words of the immortal Shakespeare, we simply say, "It is a device worthy its loving friend."

Do not miss this chance of seeing our grand exhibit.
